

Directions to Raglan

Public Transport

There is very limited public transport to Raglan the nearest train stations being at Abergavenny (8 miles away) and Newport (15 miles away).

From the Midlands and the North England

Take the M6/M5 south as far as Junction 8 - then the M50 to Ross on Wye. Follow the route to Monmouth-Newport. 6 miles past Monmouth turn left on to the A40 Abergavenny. Signposted on the turn is Raglan 1 mile on the left. Drive straight for 1/2 mile into the village. The church is on the left, the Beaufort Arms faces you on the right.

From London and West Country

From Cardiff and Southwest Wales

Use Junction 24 M4 as above or the heads of the valleys on A40 to Abergavenny and onto Raglan before it joins the A449 to Monmouth.*

- An alternative scenic route from the M4 follows the M48 (old Severn bridge) through Chepstow, the Wye valley to Raglan.

Airports

The nearest airports serving Raglan are Cardiff International Airport, Bristol Airport and Birmingham International Airport each of which are just over an hours drive from the village.
